AT the Court at Kensington, the 15th Day of
of September, 1758.

P R E S E N T,
The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th of March last, for Prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some longer Time: His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit, and Command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship, or lade any Gunpowder, Salt-Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the 29th Year of His Majesty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to Impower His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Salt-Petre, and to enforce the Law for Impowering His Majesty to Prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition: And also to Impower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt-Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque-Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

Kensington, September 30.

The following Address of the Mayor, Masters, and Capital Burgeses, of the City of Wells, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Masters, and Capital Burgeses, of the City of Wells.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Masters, and Capital Burgeses, of the City of Wells, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success with which it has pleased the Almighty to bless your Majesty's Arms, in regaining the important Forts and Harbour of Louisbourg, and the Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and Saint John. May these Acquisitions (glorious to your Majesty in the Conquest, essentially great to the Nation in its Commerce) remain a Part of the British Dominions, in your Majesty and your Illustrious Family, till Time shall be no more. May the Hand of Providence guide your Majesty's Councils, (steady, disinterested, and honest as they are) to promote and persevere in the Measures already taken and happily conducted, in the distressing our perfidious Enemies both on the Seas and their own Coasts, which must effectually curb their Insolence, and bring them under a Necessity of concluding with us a safe, lasting and honourable Peace. These Views have, and will animate your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and raise in them true Courage, Ardour, and Intrepidity. This excites our Gratitude, and calls upon us, most humbly to acknowledge your Majesty's Generosity and Goodness, in entering into this just and necessary War, for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, our Laws, Rights, and Liberties; to support which glorious Purposes, your Majesty may for ever depend on our utmost Efforts.

Given under our Common Seal, the 16th Day of September, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, having been transmitted by Sir George Montgomery Metham, one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, humbly intreat your Royal Permission to congratulate your Majesty on the various and great Successes obtained by your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, in Consequence of the wise and vigorous Measures taken by your Majesty, in carrying on the just and necessary War in which we are engaged against France.

The Conquest of the important Forts of Louisbourg, and Reduction of the Islands of Cape Breton and St. John; the Taking of the French Settlement of Senegal; the Harassing the the Enemy on their own Coasts, and Destroying their Ships and Harbours; and the glorious Victory at Crevelt, obtained by your Majesty's Forces under the Command of Prince Ferdinand; are Events which have filled our Hearts with the greatest Joy, and which, we hope, will reduce the French to the Necessity of suing for a Peace, and making such Concessions to your Majesty, as will tend to the long Continuance of it, and prevent that ambitious Nation from ever attempting again to invade your Majesty's just Rights and Possessions.

We intirely rely on your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness (which with sincere Thankfulness we acknowledge to have been ever employed for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People) to take such further Measures as shall be proper for the obtaining this desirable End; and we humbly beg Leave to assure you that we will, to the utmost of our Power, contribute to the Support of your Majesty in the Prosecution of them. And we heartily pray that your unwearied Endeavours for the Interest and Honour of these Nations, may be still crowned with Success, and that your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Blessings attending it, and may, at the Close of a long and glorious Reign, transmit the Crown in your own Royal Family to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this 19th Day of September, 1758.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, having been transmitted by Sir Ellis Cunliffe, one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, in Council assembled.

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Common Council, of the Borough of Liverpoole, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the signal Success of your Arms, and those of your Allies.

The Reduction of the important Fortrefs of Louisbourg, with the Isles of Cape Breton and Saint John; the Demolition of Cherbourg; the Seizure of the Settlements on the River Senegal; the Destruction of the Ships of Saint Malo: These, and the other repeated Blows given to the Commerce and Naval Power of France, joined to the Victories obtained by Prince Ferdinand at Crevelt, and by the King of Prussia near Custrin, are Events which must ever make your Majesty's Name dear to your Subjects, dreaded by your Enemies, and glorious to future Ages.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that, relying entirely on the experienced Wisdom of your Councils, we shall be ready, on all Occasions, to support your Majesty in your unwearied Endeavours for the Welfare of your People; and that it is our most hearty Prayer, that the Almighty will prolong your Majesty's Life, continue His Blessing on your Majesty's Arms, and that your Imperial Crown may descend to latest Posterity in your Royal Line.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole to be hereunto affixed, this Twenty Third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Eight.

Whitehall Treasury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elsewhere, is High Treason, and the Concealment thereof is Misprision of Treason;

And Whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpose is at this Time negotiating in this Kingdom; Their Lordships do hereby promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person, by whose Discovery any Subject of His Majesty, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of causing or procuring to be so lent or advanced, or of subscribing for, or contributing to, or of soliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Use or Purpose aforesaid. The said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterfon was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases

Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his the said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the abovementioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outrageous Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Cleveland.

Whitehall, September 28, 1758.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Thursday Night, the 20th Instant, or early the next Morning, The Water-Corn Mills, with the Buildings thereunto belonging, being Part of the Estate of Jacob Tonson, situate on the River Leaden, in the Parish of Ledbury in the County of Hereford, called the Lower-Hazle-Mills, were set on Fire and intirely destroyed; and that there is the greatest Reason to apprehend the same were maliciously and purposely set on Fire, by some wicked evil-minded Persons; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Person, or Persons, who committed the said Offence, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the Accomplices in the said Fact, who shall discover the Person or Persons, who actually set the said Water-Corn-Mills on Fire, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLDERNESSE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Jacob Tonson, does, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by Mr. Antipas Church, of Ledbury, aforesaid, Agent to the said Jacob Tonson, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Jacob Tonson.

Navy Office, September 26, 1758.

Whereas it hath been represented to the principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, that on the 2d Instant, about a Quarter before Ten o'Clock at Night, a Fire broke out in a Quantity of Cordage lying in his Majesty's Yard at Deptford; and there being great Reason to suspect that the same was wilfully set on Fire by the Contrivance or Conspiracy of treacherous and evil disposed Persons, the said principal Officers and Commissioners, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrator or Perpetrators of a Crime so very infamous and detestable, do hereby promise a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any of the Persons concerned therein (except the Person or Persons who actually set the Cordage on Fire) who shall make Discovery thereof, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted of the said Crime; which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty and Navy, immediately after Conviction: And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders (except the Person or Persons who actually set the same on Fire) who shall make the Discovery, will be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

Hospital for the Maintenance and Education of exposed and deserted Young Children.

This is to give Notice, that the next General Meeting of the Corporation of the Governors and Guardians of this Hospital, appointed by His Majesty's Royal Charter, will be held on Wednesday the 4th of October next, being the first Wednesday after Michaelmas Day, at the said Hospital in Lamb's Conduit Fields, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; when all the Governors and Guardians are desired to be present: of which Meeting this Notice is given, pursuant to Act of Parliament.

T. Collingwood, Secretary.

Note, On this Occasion the General Committee meet on Tuesday the 3d of October, at Ten in the Morning.

Westminster Fire Office, Sept. 30, 1758.

The Directors of the said Office do hereby give Notice, that a General Meeting of the Contributors of the said Office will be held at their Office in Bedford Street, Covent Garden, on Thursday the 26th of October next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, for chusing Directors for the Year ensuing, and upon other Affairs relating to the said Society.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Harwich, who were actually on board at the taking the Aimable Catharine, La Mutine, and Blau Harnois, French Prizes, and the Charming Moley, a Recapture, as also when in Company with his Majesty's Ship Biddeford at the taking the Desire and Picquire, French Prizes, and the Milling Snow, a Recapture, that they will be paid their respective Shares of all the said Prizes on board his Majesty's Ship Mountague now laying at Spithead, on the 2d of October next; and that the Recalls will be the first Wednesday in every Month, for one Year, and on the first Wednesday for every three Months for two Years after, between the Hours of Nine and Twelve at Noon, at the House of Mr. Bartholomew Burton, in King's Arms Yard, Coleman Street.

By the KING's Patent,

HIS MAJESTY having been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent, bearing Date at Westminster the 17th Day of October 1751, in the 25th Year of his Reign, unto Richard Rock, of the Parish of St. Bridget, otherwise Bride's, London, Licentiate in Medicine, for his New Compound Medicine, or Anti-Venereal Cathartick Electuary, for the true Cure of fresh Venereal Injuries, and all the lurking Relicts or Remains of old ones, which he has brought to a surprizing Degree of Perfection in the Cure of the several Stages of the Venereal Distemper, from the slightest Infection to the most inveterate Degree thereof, without breaking or impairing the Constitution, enervating the human System, or leaving any Foulness or Weakness behind: This is therefore to acquaint the Publick, for whose Use and Benefit the said Letters Patent were principally obtained, that the said most admirable Electuary is sold by him at the Golden Head and Key, Bell Savage Inn Gateway, Ludgate-Hill, London, at only 6s. and a Book of plain Instructions (by the Help of which every one may be his own Physician) given with each Pot: Where Advice is to be had, and all Debilities, Obstructions of the urinary Passages, and Gleets, are absolutely cured.

N. B. The Electuary is sold only by the Author as abovementioned. Beware of Counterfeits.
